

2023 IAOS Young Statisticians Prize

Do you work for an agency that produces official statistics?

Have you got something interesting to share with the official statistical community?

Are you under 35 years?

Are you interested in attending an International Conference, maybe the 2023 ISI World Statistics Congress in Ottawa, Canada?

Enter the 2023 IAOS Young Statisticians Prize

Dr. Erin Lundy works at Statistics Canada and won the first place prize in 2022 for her paper Predicting the quality and evaluating the use of administrative data for the 2021 Canadian Census of Population

Erin received a cash prize of €1,500 and a two-year IAOS membership and certificate acknowledging her success in the competition. In addition, the IAOS will fund registration fees, airfare, and hotel accommodation for Erin to present her paper at an international conference agreed between Erin and the IAOS.

The 2020 first place prize winner, Ms. Kenza Sallier, also from Statistics Canada, shared her experience in participating in the Prize in a very inspiring presentation which we encourage all potential entrants to view at <https://vimeo.com/433593258/b3bf3eb00e>

Papers from developing countries are strongly encouraged
