

2025 IAOS Young Statisticians Prize

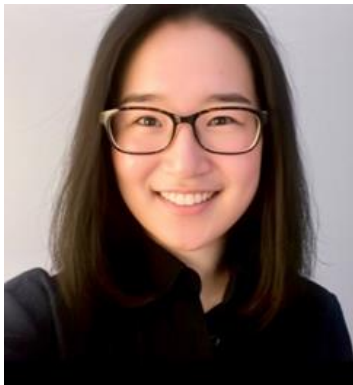

Do you work for an agency that produces official statistics?

Have you got something interesting to share with the official statistical community?

Are you under 35 years?

Are you interested in attending an International Conference, maybe the 2025 ISI World Statistics Congress in The Hague, The Netherlands?

Enter the 2025 IAOS Young Statisticians Prize

Ms. Joanne Yoon works at Statistics Canada and won joint first place prize in 2023 for her paper:

Classifying Respondent Comments from the 2021 Canadian Census of Population using Machine Learning Methods

Joanne, along with the other joint winners, received a cash prize of €1,500 and a two-year IAOS membership and certificate acknowledging their success in the competition. In addition, the IAOS will fund registration fees, airfare, and hotel accommodation for them to present their paper at an international conference agreed between them and the IAOS. Prize money is also offered for 2nd & 3rd.

The 2020 first place prize winner, Ms. Kenza Sallier, also from Statistics Canada, shared her experience in participating in the Prize in a very inspiring presentation which we encourage all potential entrants to view at <https://vimeo.com/433593258/b3bf3eb00e>

Papers from developing countries are strongly encouraged
